A TIME TO BE ALONE ...
A TIME TO BE WITH FRIENDS

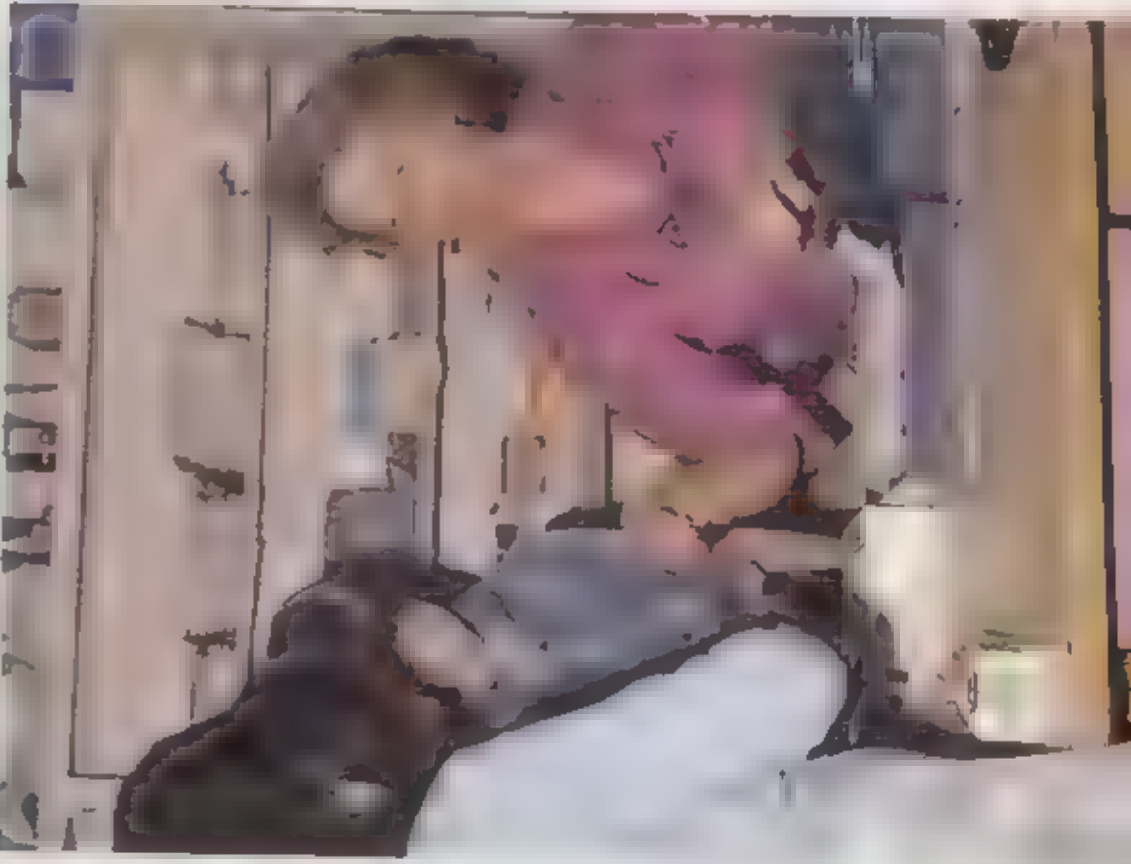

Mrs. Bettye Dollar

The 1981 Shield staff recognizes a very special person. She is a lunchroom worker, a bus driver, and a bookkeeper all in one. After twelve years of ministry at Alliance Christian School we feel that her love and patience in service to us and the Lord Jesus Christ deserve recognition. It is for this reason that we dedicate the 1981 Shield to Mrs. Bettye Dollar.

A black and white photograph of a large, ornate, multi-tiered pagoda or stupa, likely a historical monument. The structure is composed of several stacked, square or rectangular tiers, each decorated with intricate carvings or patterns. The top tier is the most prominent, featuring a large, central, rounded finial. The pagoda is situated in an open area, with a low fence or wall visible in the foreground. In the background, there are trees and possibly other structures, though they are less distinct. The overall image has a grainy, historical quality.

MISS ALLIANCE — CINDY BUTLER

Nominations for Mr. Alliance and Miss Alliance are made by the Senior High faculty. These are young people they consider to be outstanding examples of the Christian students in our High School. Primary consideration for the nomination is the Christian testimony of each young person, but academic standing, sportsmanship and service are also considered. Mr. Alliance and Miss Alliance are then chosen by vote of the Junior and Senior High students.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION DOESN'T COST — IT PAYS

As Jesus grew "in wisdom, and stature, and in favor with God and man," so Alliance Christian Schools seek to develop the total student

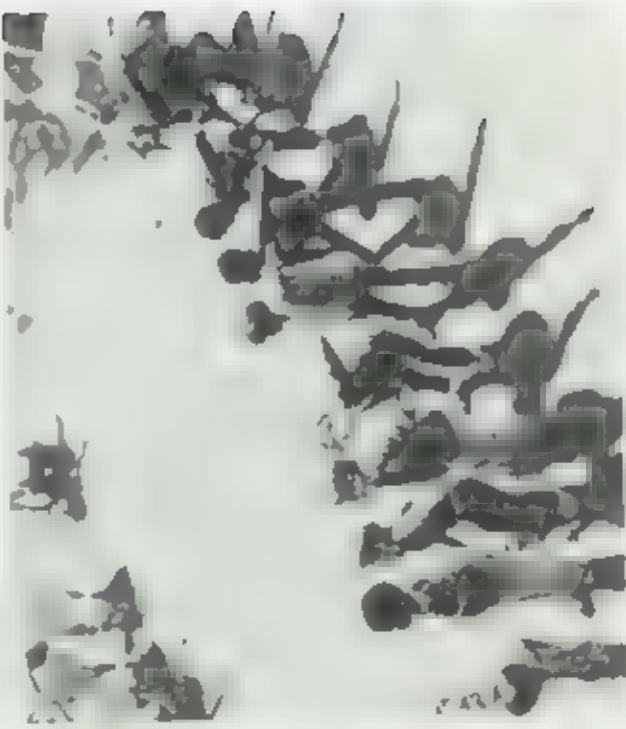

Quality education is enhanced by regular drills.

Emphasis is always placed on scripture memorization, sword drills, and Bible study

Students develop physically and socially by daily participation in recess and physical education classes

Individual abilities and talents are cultivated by productions, fine arts, contests, and class instruction

The ministry of Alliance Christian School will be extended with the completion of a long awaited gymnasium

 the weeks are the months
 the months are the years
 and the years are the decades
 while the decades become centuries
 time moving slowly on the moments are by one slipping into eternity ever to be loved again
 the seconds are the days
 the minutes are the hours
 the hours are the days
 the days are the weeks
 the weeks are the months
 the months are the years
 and the years are the decades
 while the decades become centuries

Students leave the Vestavia location of Alliance Christian School on the east side of the road

Miss Alexander watches her Second Grade class at East Lake leave at the end of the day
